W2 Professorship

“Business Administration, focusing on International Sustainability Management”

What to expect:

- You will teach in Bachelor's and Master's degree programmes at Münster School of Business, focusing especially on Sustainability Management.
- You will develop practice-oriented and competency-based courses in this area.
- You will be able to contribute your research expertise in an application-oriented way.
- You will collaborate with various organisations in the field of sustainability management; initiate and manage externally funded projects; and supervise cooperative doctorates.
- You will also support the University's internationalisation strategy, e.g. by overseeing and developing cooperative activities with partner universities abroad.
- Last but not least, you will help the School to implement a sustainability strategy.

Your background:

- Your expertise is underpinned by a university degree and an above-average doctorate/PhD in a relevant subject.
- You also have relevant professional experience in sustainability management (e.g. green design, sustainable procurement, eco-friendly production, product returns, sustainable investment, sustainable brand management).
- You have international experience in the field of sustainable economic activity, and are able to deliver courses in both German and English at a near-native level.
- Initial leadership experience completes your impressive profile.
- University teaching skills and experience are desirable, as well as an interest in interdisciplinary exchange.

We offer you:

- A permanent W2 professorship on civil servant conditions will enable you to make a valuable contribution to teaching, research and university management.
- You will be able to strike a healthy balance between work and leisure / family life.
- We offer an extensive portfolio of didactic and professional training opportunities, enabling you to continue gaining skills.
- You can look forward to an exciting challenge as part of our team; dedicated colleagues will assist you from the very beginning.

We look forward to receiving your online-application by 16 July 2021.
