At FH Münster we promote your ideas.

Professorship in “Building/Construction Industry and Construction Contract Law” at the Department of Civil Engineering

What to expect:

- You will teach basic principles such as cost accounting and management accounting on the Bachelor's programmes offered at the department.
- Your application-oriented research will focus primarily on the areas of building/construction industry and construction contract law.
- You will enable students to deepen their theoretical knowledge in the context of special practice-oriented courses and project work.
- On the Master's programme, you will teach practical building/construction knowledge in modules such as Follow-up Management and Project Management.
- Your expertise is also required on the executive Master's programme in “Building Law in the Life Cycle of Buildings”.

Your background:

- Your expertise is based on a degree in Civil Engineering, focusing on Construction Site Management, and a recognised doctorate.
- Your extensive and relevant practical experience on construction sites will provide a good foundation for your application-oriented teaching.
- You have experience teaching in higher education, and your willingness to deliver courses in English, if required, will support the university's internationalisation strategy.
- Experience in applying for research projects and an extensive network of practice partners round off your profile.

We offer you:

- A permanent W2 professorship on civil servant conditions will enable you to make a valuable contribution to teaching, research and university management.
- You will be able to strike a healthy balance between work and leisure / family life.
- We offer an extensive portfolio of didactical further training opportunities, enabling you to continue gaining skills.
- You can look forward to an exciting challenge as part of our team; dedicated colleagues will assist you from the very beginning.

- You will also play an active role in further developing the department, and will get involved in university self-government.

We look forward to receiving your online-application by 23 October 2022. For reasons of data security, we kindly ask you to apply only via our online form.
