At FH Münster we promote your ideas.

Professorship
“International Business and Management, focusing on Intercultural and Digital Competencies”
at Münster School of Business

What to expect:

- You will teach Bachelor's and Master's degree courses in intercultural management, leadership, and other related topics at the Münster School of Business.
- You will particularly focus on intercultural and digital competencies, especially as they relate to leadership and teams in international contexts.
- Courses will be taught in English.
- You will be able to contribute your research expertise in an application-oriented way.
- In addition to teaching, you must also demonstrate a willingness to expand and develop university competencies in internationalization, and digitalization by being a member of project teams and committees.
- Last but not least, you will play an active role in academic self-government.

Your background:

- Your expertise is underpinned by a degree and an above-average doctorate.
- You also have extensive professional knowledge in intercultural and digital competencies.
- You have relevant professional experience in one or more of the following areas: intercultural communication | multicultural teams & cross-cultural training | intercultural aspects of change management | business ethics in an international context | culture and work processes supporting innovation and digitalization | diversity and inclusion in digital spaces | virtual teams and leadership | digital work, new ways of working | technology adoption
- Academic expertise in these areas mentioned above is required, including the ability to supervise Bachelor's and Master's degree theses. Academic publication record is expected.

We offer you:

- A permanent W2 professorship on civil servant conditions will enable you to make a valuable contribution in terms of teaching, research and university management.
- You can look forward to an exciting challenge as part of our team; dedicated colleagues will assist you from the very beginning.
- Our family-friendly conditions will ensure that you can strike a good work-life balance.
- We offer an extensive portfolio of didactical further training opportunities, enabling you to continue gaining skills.

- Advanced knowledge of English is essential for this position, either as a native speaker or gained by working in an English-speaking environment outside of Germany for several years. Good knowledge of German is desirable.
- Finally, you enjoy teaching and can motivate students and generate discussion and learning.

We look forward to your online application by 1 March 2023. For reasons of data security, we kindly ask you to apply exclusively via our online form.
